INTRODUCTION

"To Dream . . . To Strive . . . To Achieve!" is the theme for the 1974-75 Corona. This theme ties in with the motto of the graduating class, "Today's Dream is Tomorrow's Future." In order to accomplish anything, one must first have a dream.

We students at St. Stephens have worked hard to achieve our goals, which have stemmed from individual dreams. In the opening pages of the Corona, the artist has tried to illustrate the theme of the yearbook using an indian. This indian has a dream to build a fine teepee. The accompanying photographs are of incidences where dreams are being created. Later, we see the indian struggling with the materials as he is building his teepee. Here, the photographs depict students at St. Stephens working toward achieving their goals. Finally, we see the indian sitting proudly before his completed teepee; a truly fine one which he made with his own hands. There is no better reward!

WE DEDICATE THE CORONA TO . . .

Principal Charles J. Bost

The 1975 St. Stephens High School Yearbook is dedicated to a man who is willing to spend fourteen hours a day at his job — a man who will be viewed with suspicion and criticism regardless of what he says or does. Being the principal of a high school is an awesome task.

Mr. Charles J. Bost is in attendance almost everytime the door to our school opens. Out of the 180 day school year, it is estimated that he is here for school related activities 130 nights. This gentleman is not only responsible for the education and well-being of the student body; he is also responsible for the faculty, office personnel, maintenance personnel, cafeteria staff, buses, the building, and all the financial affairs of the school.

A brief history of Mr. Bost would reveal that he graduated from Claremont High School, Claremont, N. C. in 1940. He attended Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory, N. C. on a full double scholarship for basketball and baseball. He has been known to remark that his education cost him a total of $10 in the four years. This, he splurged on an annual. While at L.R. Mr. Bost lettered in 3 sports — baseball, basketball, and football. After graduation, he signed a contract with the New York Giants Baseball team for a $500 bonus. He later secured a release from the contract, and played semi-pro locally.

During WWII, Mr. Bost served in the U.S. Navy aboard the U.S.S. Arkansas.

He received his M.A. degree from Peabody College, and served as teacher-coach at Banoak School, 1947-50. He became principal of Banoak 1950-54. Next, he was principal of Mountain View School 1954-64; then he came to St. Stephens High in 1964.

Mr. Bost's interests range from his Church Membership at Mount Olive Lutheran Church in Hickory, to his and Mrs. Bost's participation in a dance club.

Mrs. Bost is the former Catherine Deal, and they have two sons. Carl Lee is a Senior at N. C. State, and Charles Michael is a Senior at Hockory High.

In appreciation for Mr. Bost's dedicated service in the field of education, the student body of St. Stephens High says, "Thank you."

Mr. and Mrs. Bost share a dance at the Jr. Sr. Prom

Mr. Bost takes a break from his daily routine.

Mr. Bost, Mr. Tallman, and Mrs. Isenhower discuss a problem which is quickly solved.

FEATURES

Freshman Reigns as Miss SSHS 1974-75

Robin Lane, who was crowned the new Miss St. Stephens reigns in victorious beauty.

This year's beauty pageant was one of the school's most fashionable features. The theme was "Days Gone By," which was a nostalgic look at the fifties. The pageant was a conglomeration of the school's most lovely ladies. Seventy-seven contestants participated in the pageant, in which one, namely Robin Lane, was chosen as the winner. Mary Bolick and Robin Suttlemyer were chosen as runners-up to Miss St. Stephens. The winner was chosen on appearance alone. The 50's were brought back through the background scenery, and the special effect produced by a couple, which performed the dance of the 50's. Mr. Suggs, who was the master of ceremonies, induced laughter and entertained everyone watching the pageant with his musical ability. To conclude, this year's beauty pageant was a very entertaining, and exciting night. The pageant is sponsored by the P.T.A. and directed by Mrs. Violet Kale.

Due to a tie, Mindy Martin and Kim Huffman shared the title of Miss Congeniality.

Robin Suttlemyre, first runner-up; Robin Lane, Miss St. Stephens; and Mary Bolick, second runner-up.

The top ten girls in the pageant awaited the final decision while standing on the platform with an old moss covered mansion as their scenic background. Julian Suggs was the Master of Ceremonies.

Ten girls dressed to fit the theme, "Days Gone By" provided a dance for entertainment.

Mr. Futrelle and Mrs. Ivey relived their teenage years by dancing up some memories.

The judges work feverishly over their ballots before naming the new Miss St. Stephens.

Fabulous Fifties Live Again

The Bobby Sox 50's came alive in silver and blue on April 26 at the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The junior chorus sang a few "oldie goldies."

There were twenty-four sophomore waiters and waitresses. The girls were clad in long skirts, white blouses, bobby sox and saddle oxfords. They sported bright red lips and cheeks. The waiters wore tight jeans and white T-shirts, they even had a cigarette pack rolled up one sleeve. Let's not forget the coolest look for guys in the fifties — that greasy, slicked-back hair. For entertainment, the waiters and waitresses danced the jitterbug. The food that was provided consisted of petite cakes, pimento cheese and chicken salad sandwiches, potato chips, pickles and coke.

Queen of the prom was Brenda Sweat, her attendants were Mary Bolick, Robin Suttlemyre, and Christy McMahan.

Elaborate decorations and a good band set the mood for dancing.

Background music induced slow dancing . . .

and fast dancing!

A chorus consisting of juniors sang up some memories from the fifties.

Decorations were based on the "Fabulous Fifties" and thus enhanced the mood of the theme.

Sophomore waiters and waitresses served food and dressed to set the mood for the prom.

Twenty-four sophomores performed a dance in the style of the fifties.

"TOMORROW IS OURS"

Anticipation and excitement were apparent as the Seniors filed into the gym to receive their diplomas on the night of graduation.

"Tomorrow Is Ours," not only sets the theme but also the mood for graduation night. After this night the Seniors all go their separate ways. Some will further their education by going on to college while others pursue vocational careers or domesticated positions. Graduation marked not only an end but also a beginning. An end to high school and a few old friends, but the beginning of new life and some new friends, as well as new experiences.

On the night of graduation some of the class left for the beach. The class also has plans for a reunion in five years.

Three graduates leave the school with smiles on their faces, and diplomas in their hands.

Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Harris watch Mrs. Westbrook cheer for the new graduates.

Darrell Jones served as the Valedictorian.

Joanne Isbell served as the Salutatorian.

"Right on, buddy! You made it!"

Tears streamed and laughter filled the air as the final good-byes were said.

Young Hillbillies Take Over SSHS

Young hillbillies filled the halls as St. Stephens once again celebrated Sadie Hawkins Day. The students, clad in anything from wigs to overalls to roller skates, began the day by comparing outfits and playing practical jokes.

The festivities continued in an assembly as members of the R. H. Club presented country music and corny jokes. Even teachers left their usual dignified clothes at home and appeared in more appropriate costumes. A surprise star of the show was kazoo player Ed Tallman, whose outlandish dance won him the attention of pursuing female fans. From a lineup of nominees, Debra Conary and Chris Benfield were chosen as Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner.

In the evening, students danced to the music of "Elias Dan" at the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Everyone not only enjoyed dressing like hillbillies, but also adopting the carefree spirit which accompanied the holiday.

Debra Conary and Chris Benfield are given the titles of Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner.

A band dressed to fit the occasion, provided entertainment for the assembly, while several students gathered around on the floor.

Even the teachers have fun by joining in the hillbilly festivities. Coach Tallman is making the most of the situation.

There appears to be quite a change in E. Tallman from earlier in the day.

The Spring Dance is a great time for friends to socialize.

R. Teague and her date enjoy a romantic dance together.

Apparently lots of students turned up to enjoy the Spring Dance.

Smiling faces and lots of movement are characteristics of the Dance.

A rock band provides music to dance by.

$17,000 Goal Reached During Magazine Campaign

Once again students at St. Stephens sold magazines as the annual school fund-raising project. Over $17,800 was raised due to the effort put forth by the students. Ms. Karen Terry's sophomore homeroom took first place in the traditional competition between homerooms, with a total of $881.49 raised. Their efforts were rewarded by a steak luncheon at Mull's restaurant. Other top students were recognized also, with prizes being offered for the number of subscriptions sold.

Money raised from the project was used to aid the athletic department, school clubs, and the promotion of the Jr.-Sr. prom.

The Varsity cheerleaders set the mood for the Magazine Sales Kick-off with their "enthusiastic" promotional skit.

Mr. Abernathy helps boost enthusiasm.

Even the band dressed for the occasion.

Everyone joins in on the fun by yelling, clapping, and even dancing. Here, Mr. Andrew proves that he can match anyone on the dance floor.

Male Supremacy Reigns at SSHS

Here is a sample of what the judges had to choose from.

Over thirty ravishing contestants vied November 14 for the title of "Mr. St. Stephens for 1974-'75. Assisted by members of the St. Stephens Sub-Junior Club, which sponsored the pageant, each of the entrants was first presented in street wear, then in a dazzling array of feminine charms. Before a packed house, the contestants displayed their talents as they daintily tripped along the runway. To allow overwhelmed judges time to recover and make their decisions, the audience was entertained by a Drama Class presentation. In addition, five of the more "ill and illustrious" Seniors amazed everyone with their jokes and antics on stage. Finally, from the Top Ten, three lucky "ladies" were chosen. The winner of the tough competition was Jeff Bowman, followed by Jim Lightfoot and Sam Tallman, first and second runners-up, respectively. They received trophies and, along with all their graceful opponents, a great deal of attention.

L. TO R.: Sam Tallman, 2nd Runner-up; Jeff Bowman, Mr. St. Stephens; Jim Lightfoot, 1st Runner-up.

Argentine Student Becomes Lasting Friend

Dan demonstrates his fine skill of playing "foozball."

Fellow Students . . .

Dear St. Stephens High,

Hi! You know me, Yo Soy Dan. I'm from that too difficult to remember place: ARGENTINA. Now I will tell you how much I have liked you being my host, a truly friendly one.

All along this year I have had a lot of fun, laughs, and winks; and everywhere I have made friends. When the end of this year arrives, be sure that it will forever rest in my heart and my memory along all the days of my life. The experience that I have had here will help me to live for a better world, for a better future.

Yours forever,

Roberto Daniel Slikernatan

Despite Cold Drizzling Rain, Homecoming

There could not be a better theme for the Indian's 1974 Homecoming activities than "Indian Summer." A float displaying this theme was the setting for the highlight of the night when Miss Robin Suttlemyre was crowned the Homecoming Queen during halftime. She received a bouquet of roses and a kiss from our student body president David Haynes, and a football and kiss from the captain of the football team Brad Lawing.

After the victorious football game, the Homecoming Dance was held in the cafeteria. Entertainment was provided by the band "Stonewall." The night was filled with this school's unity of mind and soul.

Students seem to enjoy dancing to the music of "Stonewall."

Twelve Outstanding Students Chosen

Jeff Reeves: I know but one freedom, and that is the freedom of the mind. Antoine de Saint-Exupery

Sherree Dietz: Men their rights and nothing more; women their rights and nothing less. Susan Anthony

Brad Lawing: Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him strength. Abraham Lincoln

Lennie Spencer: I never knew a man I didn't like. Will Rogers to Represent the Graduating Seniors of '75

Joyce Yount: I believe in power, but I believe that responsibility should go with power. Theodore Roosevelt

Gloria Miller: They can because they think they can. Virgil.

Vanessa Craig: To one fixed trust my spirit clings. Whittier.

Mike Garren: Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, to know what he ought to do. St. Thomas Aquinas.

Who's Who at St. Stephens . . .

Tommy Myers: Give me a lever long enough and a prop strong enough. I can singlehanded move the world.
Archimedes

Lynn Warren: Life is short, but truth works far and lives long, let us spread the truth. Schopenhauer

David Smith: Knowledge and Human Power are synonymous.
Francis Bacon

Mike Propst: Seek ye first the good things of the mind. Francis Bacon

Band Attends Tulip Time International Music Festival

All of the band members pose for a group shot before leaving.

Lots of things are going on in the bedlam of those last moments before everyone departs for the airport.

On Easter Sunday, the St. Stephens High School Band departed for Katwijk Aan Zee, Holland, to participate in the week-long Tulip Time International Music Festival.

The following week was not all play for the marching Indians. After playing for an evaluation, the Indians toured the nearby country side, performing at hospitals and the famous Keukenhof Tulip Gardens. The week closed with a mass concert, combining all the bands. Scores were announced, and the St. Stephens Marching Indians received a Superior!

After the festival, the band then traveled to Brussels, Belgium. A quick tour, a stop at the lace factory, and the Marching Indians were on their way to London, England, for a brief stay. The stopover in London was highlighted by a visit to Buckingham Palace to witness the changing of the Guard.

The Indians returned very tired, but well satisfied. Everyone enjoyed the trip, and would gladly go to all the trouble again.

Bloodmobile is Great Success

Sherree Dietz helps by giving blood. She later assists with the donations.

The vocational clubs of St. Stephens sponsored the Red Cross Bloodmobile here at St. Stephens on January 25, 1975. This was the first time in our Catawba County School System that the Bloodmobile has been sponsored by a school. Two Hundred and seventy-five students and community residents turned out for the "give-in." Of these two hundred and seventy-five perspective donors, two hundred and twenty-two pints of much-needed blood was received. Out of the two hundred and twenty-two pints received, one hundred and twenty-seven pints were from first time donors.

The Vocational Clubs are honored to extend their sincere gratitude and appreciation for the co-operation of the faculty and student body. Many thanks go to all who turned out for the successful "Blood Give-in."

Mrs. Maye gives with a smile on her face.

David Smith gives with a question on his face.

You sign up before giving blood.

You get refreshments afterwards.

Gymnasts Display Talents

Beauty and form are clearly seen in the movements of this ballerina as she performs.

"Everyone together now, for group formations."

Talents displayed ranged from those involving a group, to . . .

Solo talent on parallel bars.

This year, the P.E. classes presented two gymnastic programs. The freshman and sophomore classes held a show for parents, and the junior and senior classes performed for the PTA. The shows included creative dancing, stunts, and various routines on the uneven parallel bars, and the balance beam.

Steady does it for these two balancing acts.

Varsity Football Players Use Experience, Skill To

St. Stephens had a winning football season this year with a record of seven wins and three losses and a tie for fourth place in the SD7 conference standings.

The team, along with its three coaches, Ed Tallman, Ken Simmons, and George Nazarovitch, contributed six all conference players. They

J.V. Football

The 1974 Junior Varsity football team, like any other squad, had to be inexperienced. But like any other young team, it showed plenty of enthusiasm, determination, and spirit. Under the leadership of coaches Marty Curtis and Neil Abernathy, the team started practice during the summer and worked long and hard despite the summer heat. The coaches think that some of the players of this team can and will make valuable contribution to the varsity squad. The team was led by captains Tim Herman, Randy Lyalls, and Jeff Bowman. Their record was four wins and six losses.

Experience, or the lack of it, played perhaps the most important role in the boys' varsity basketball team's season. Out of the fifteen member squad, only six had any previous varsity playing time. This factor naturally contributed to the team's poor record, however Coach Frye did try to compensate by playing as many men as possible. This led to several exciting games, both wins and losses. Their best win, over West Lincoln, advanced them in the conference tournament.

Girls Varsity Basketball

During the past few years, a few of the nearby teams established the reputation of being the "Big Three." To the surprise and delight of St. Stephens supporters, the 1974-75 Varsity Girls' team changed the name to the "Big Four." Proving that practice makes perfect, the ladies stayed after school in the spring and met also in the summer to practice.

This evidently paid off because the Indianettes finished fourth in the Conference. The team also went to the Conference as well as District play-offs. The team consisted of six seniors, five juniors, and three sophomores. According to Coach Hilton, this group of girls has been one of the most talented and closely knit teams ever to represent St. Stephens.

The motto for the Junior Varsity basketball squad could be: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again." The team finished their season with four wins and twelve losses with the wins coming from Newton-Conover, West Lincoln, Gamewell-Colletsville, and Fred T. Foard.

The coach for the team, Neil Abernathy, kept the feeling that if the team hustled and played hard, they could beat just about anyone. The team proved this by beating Fred T. Foard who had a record of fourteen wins and three losses. The honor of high scorer, as well as point guard and playmaker, went to Tim Herman, a sophomore.

Girls' J.V. Basketball

A good performance on the Junior Varsity team is a necessity for a sophomore or a freshman who has hopes of playing on the varsity next year. Under the leadership of Coach Chris Rose the team spent many hours after school practicing plays, shooting, defense, and dribbling. The hours of hard work proved essential as the girls compiled a record of nine wins and seven losses.

The Junior Varsity girls chose as captain a sophomore Robin Lane. The leading scorer for the team was a freshman, Donna Bumgarner. The J.V. squad consisted of nine sophomores and six freshmen.

Intramural Basketball Successful In First Year

Randall Davis takes this jumpshot in the faculty-student game held after the magazine sales.

Ronnie Owens stretches to control the ball.

Intramural basketball was begun at St. Stephens to give those not necessarily on varsity or junior varsity teams a chance to play competition basketball. The teams were divided up into two divisions, one for girls and one for boys. Players were then grouped according to class or homeroom. All the teams played each other no less than once in preparation for the tournament. An all-star team then played a group of teachers in the game played at the close of the magazine sales.

Varsity Cheerleaders "Spirit" Teams To Victory

A. Cunningham, C. Reece, P. Hollifield, R. Eckard, D. Carpenter, M. Martin, S. Lail, D. Norris, C. Huffman.

St. Stephens High students are very fortunate to have nine highly enthused, school-spirited girls this year to lead them on in cheers at the football and basketball games. They drum up school support by making posters and distributing them around the school. On the day of the game they not only brighten up the school by wearing their cheerleading suits, but they also lead the students in pep rallies for the spirit jug. The spirit jug is awarded to one of the four classes or to the band for cheering loudly and cooperating with the cheerleaders. This past summer seven of our girls went to a cheerleading camp at U.N.C.C. where they won top honors.

The cheerleaders go into a formation in this cheer at a home basketball game.

The cheerleaders and friends raise spirits at football games with this type of cheer.

J.V. cheerleaders add spirit to the games while preparing for varsity work.

With the game going well, these cheerleaders look happy as they spur the crowd's enthusiasm.

The J.V. cheerleaders are the girls who promote school spirit by: putting up posters supporting the Indians, by wearing red and white on the days of all the J.V. ballgames, and cheering loudly for the Indians at all the ballgames. The girls' fine cheerleading skills were proudly displayed at the Homecoming game, as they filled in for some of the members of the varsity squad. We wish them much success in future years as prospective members of the varsity cheerleading squad.

Utilizing the unlikely combination of youth and experience, the varsity wrestling team posted its second straight winning record. The Indians, playing probably the most difficult schedule in the high school's short wrestling history, won nine of their fourteen regular season matches. 1973-1974 Varsity Baseball
Nobody is perfect. This goes for the St. Stephens Varsity Baseball team, which has in the preceding four years won four conference titles and three state championships. However, the Indians did not do badly, placing third in the District Seven AAA with twelve wins and six losses.

Coach Harry Frye said that the team "on paper" was as good as past teams, but the team just did not get the breaks in some of the games. He said that they lost four games by one run because they could not get the runs when they needed them. He also said the pitching wasn't as good as the pitching of the past years.

Although the 1973-1974 baseball team was good, the 1974-1975 baseball team will hopefully win the Southern District Seven AAA conference title, and then go all the way to win the State Championship. So cross your fingers and wish them luck.

Mark Cockerham crosses home plate for another St. Stephen's score. Teammate Brad Lawing returns to the bench after scoring also.

Outfielder Larry Justice, one of the Indians' leading hitters, steps to the plate.

"How high to win?" seems to be an important question on K. Spears mind.

It can truly be said that the track team has "come a long way." Last year the Indians won their first track meet in four years and this year they went all the way to become Conference Champions. This is the first time St. Stephens has won a track Conference Championship since 1967. In all, five school records were broken, the Indians finished third in the Lincolnton relays, and won the Newton-Conover Invitational Relays. A record such as this will certainly be longstanding, but no doubt Coach Nazarovitch has hopes of repeating it in 1975.

Boosters Recondition Field For Football Season

Mr. W. Lawing, Pres., and Mr. J. Gaddy, vice-pres., collect money for seats from Mr. and Mrs. Bumgarner.

The finished product ready for use.

In order to be successful, a school's athletic program must have outside help. At St. Stephens this is provided by the Boosters Club. The club's contributions to the athletic program are many. They include operating the concession stand at home games, providing an athletic banquet, and helping to obtain various sporting equipment. This year the club helped by reconditioning the football field. Many thanks are due to these men and women.

Athletes Enjoy Meal, Awards At Banquet

Coach Frye gives out trophies, stars, and letters to the varsity basketball team.

Student Council

The Student Council consists of eight elected students, whose purpose is to improve St. Stephens High. The officers of each class meet twice a month on the first and third Wednesdays with the faculty advisors.

The Student Council has four major functions. They draw up new student body policies, supervise all student government activities, enforce all school regulations, and also review and revise work done by the Student Assembly.

Let's hope that this isn't what David thinks about St. Stephens. If it is, we're in real trouble!

Being a homeroom representative is a great responsibility for any student. Gloria Miller shows this as she listens to what is being said at the Student Assembly meeting.

The Student Assembly consists of the officers of the Student Council, a representative of each homeroom and a faculty advisor. The Assembly meets on the fourth Wednesday of every month. At these meetings they discuss new ways to better St. Stephens High.

The Assembly's main concerns are to keep the Student Body well informed of the progress being made. They do this with the help of the homeroom representative. The representative also helps to state the students opinion and to formulate the Student Body policies.

These are not their only concerns. They sponsor the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and sell parking stickers to students to help raise money for the school.

It is an honor to be chosen as a member of the Beta Club. The only members are those who are in the top ten percent of their junior or senior class. The new members are chosen by the present members of the Beta Club, and also by a faculty committee. High grades, intelligence, and leadership ability exists in every member of the Beta Club.

The club meets about once a month. During the meetings, future plans are discussed, which this year included the following: attending the convention in April, compiling the honor roll each six weeks, and the traditional initiation and induction services for the newcomers.

The officers are: Bruce Sigmon, president; Neil Sipe, vice-president; Gloria Miller, secretary; and Debbie Walker, treasurer. They hope to broaden the popularity of the club, and make the 1974-1975 school year an outstanding one.

The art club started this year off with an exciting trip to the Biltmore House in Asheville, N.C. There they studied the objects within, as well as outside the house. This spring they plan to go to Raleigh in order to visit the art museums.

Many times during the year you were able to admire the display cases put up by the art club, one of these was the nativity scene during Christmas.

During the month of February, some of the art students exhibited their projects in an art contest, sponsored by the Hickory Junior Woman's Club. The projects consisted of decoupage, crafts, stitchery, drawing and sketching, and also paintings in oil and acrylic. Out of all the students that entered from the whole county, there were several first place winners and second place winners from St. Stephens. Next year, who knows, we may just walk away with the whole lot!

The Art Club displays some of its fine work.

Health Careers Club Co-Sponsors Bloodmobile

The Health Careers Club is made up of young people who are interested in careers in the medical field. They assemble in order to share their common interests, and to explore opportunities and requirements in health fields, also they learn about the community life in which they soon will participate as informed citizens.

Health Careers is only one of the vocational clubs which will be sponsoring the bloodmobile this year.

Making up a bed is just one of the many skills Ronald Voorhees has learned.

President of French Club, S. Parsons, calls meeting to order.

The main goal of the French Club is to gain interest in the French program at St. Stephens. Miss Vickie Smith, the new French instructor, has inspired a great deal of enthusiasm in the activities of the French Club.

Activities for the French Club included a trip to Biltmore House and Gardens in Asheville, N.C.; a dinner at an exclusive French restaurant, and a meal prepared and eaten by the French students.

It is hoped that interest will grow and that more and more French students will be seen at St. Stephens.

Spanish Club Entertained By Dan Slickerman

This year has been a big and exciting year for the Spanish Club. Dan Slickerman, the foreign exchange student from Argentina, has been able to tell the customs and language of the Spanish people. The Spanish Club went to Pedro's Spanish Restaurant near Charlotte. They also had a fiesta and banquet in honor of Dan Slickerman.

Being a teacher's aide, participating in exchange programs between neighboring schools, assisting with a teacher's tea, and practice teaching at grammar schools are only a few of the projects in which a member of the FTA can participate. However, the projects do not consist of work alone; there is time for fun and pleasure — cookouts, skits for regional meetings, and running a candidate for state office.

Each member can distinguish himself in this club and determine the full responsibilities of being a teacher. One can decide if he is capable and suitable for the teaching profession.

This year the St. Stephens High School Band underwent some changes because of its new director, Mr. Terry L. Sidelinker. Colby Pressley, the band's new drum major, worked very hard along with Mr. Sidelinker to help maintain the band's good ratings. To keep the band looking good, there are twelve dancing Indianettes, plus an added attraction of eight majorettes.

Along with performing at school athletic contests, the band planned a minimum of three concerts and they also made plans for an exchange performance with another high school band. In the way of parades, the St. Stephens High School Band entered a number of parades and band festivals throughout the school year. They also plan to participate in some parades during the summer.

It is hoped that the band will be successful in its endeavors to make St. Stephens High School known for its musical talent and showmanship.

Chorus Makes Beautiful Music for Fellow Students

Chorus rehearses for upcoming concert.

Chorus

The 1974-75 Chorus is made up of thirty-three students, less than half of the number it had last year. However, under its new leader, Mr. Terry Sidelinker, that number has gradually risen. This year the Chorus had three concerts, which will be performed annually. They also sung for numerous PTA meetings and Music Aid Society meetings. They had a few performances with the band too.

There are always possibilities of choral workshops and festivals for the Chorus. The continuous help and coaxing of Mr. Sidelinker has made this years Chorus one of the best.

Pep Club Raises Money For New Activity Bus

Pep Club Members Promote School Spirit at St. Stephens

PEP CLUB

Plenty of pep and good school spirit in all activities; that's the Pep Club! One of the largest clubs at SSH, its main purpose is to support all athletic and school-sponsored projects. This year's goal is to raise approximately $10,000 for a new activity bus. Several ways it plans to collect this money are by a walk-a-thon, bike-a-thon, bake sales, car washes, and the selling of articles such as sweatshirts, stadium cushions, and bumper stickers.

Along with the help of its sponsors, Mrs. Kupetz, Miss Brown, and Mr. Abernathy, the Pep Club will endeavor to promote good citizenship throughout S.S.H.S.

Library Club Also Referred To As Media Club

The SSHS Media Center functions as an integral part of the total school program, planning and implementing the curriculum by the selection and acquisition of media material and equipment. Mrs. Sigmon, the media specialist; Mrs. Nickerson, the media aide; and 21 student assistants provide guidance and help in independent study, group study reference and research, as well as organizing, cataloging and circulating the educational media.

The SSHS Media Club is active both at the district and state levels, attending both meetings each year. It entered scrapbook competition at the state level last year, and plans to do so again this year.

As a special project this year, new draperies have been added to the Media Center and plans are to add decorative touches to provide a pleasant atmosphere conducive to learning. It is also hoped that the listening-viewing area can be increased and a production area added. Regardless of facilities, the success of the Media Center and its program depends upon involvement, cooperation, and commitment of the Media Staff, the students, the faculty, and the administration

The student American Field Service is a part of the St. Stephens Community Adult AFS Chapter. The major role of the AFS is to assist the adult chapter in its program of two phases: bringing exchange students to our school each year and nominating two students from our school for the Americans Abroad program. A student may or may not be selected to spend a year abroad.

During the year, the AFS Club has engaged in at least two fund-raising projects in order to continue the Americans Abroad program. The club also had exchange students from other schools in our district to speak to our students at SSH.

DECA Club

Each D.E. student worked part-time as well as taking required courses at school. The DECA Club members financed a plan and took an active part in giving their employers an evening of entertainment, food, and education. The members displayed for their employer the value of the club's leadership program.

DECA students learned to work together on civic projects and competitive club contests, as well as social activities.

The DECA emblem is worn by over 140,000 D.E. students in the U.S. The four points on the diamond of the DECA emblem stand for vocational understanding, civic consciousness, social intelligence, and leadership development. The point in the center of the diamond stands for a job well done.

Bus Drivers Diligently Work To Transport Students

This year has been one of the greatest for the bus drivers at St. Stephens High School. This is a group that the student body can not thank enough. Four adult drivers, besides the student drivers, have been among the noise, paper throwing and spit wad shooting through this year. After they manage to survive through a week, these bus drivers must then take about thirty minutes to clean up the dirt and trash so the bus will be ready for the next week. But all this seems to look one hundred times better at the end of the month, after they've received their pay checks. The main purpose of the bus drivers though is the concern of the student passengers.

This was Mr. Galbreath's first year as an adviser. He said it was a pleasure working with the staff. One of the main problems this year was finding the time to put the program's together. At the beginning of the year, the staff converted one of the workrooms into a remote studio. They used a tape recorder and taped the fifteen minute show, since it would be impossible for every one on the staff to appear "live" at the studios of WHKY. Each week a member of the faculty was interviewed on a certain topic.

Mr. Galbreath hopes that "The Voice of St. Stephens" will be part of the school's public relations program for many years to come.

At the first of the year the debate team attended a seminar at UNC on September twenty-seventh debate team attended various tournaments throughout the year, such as the ones held on October fourth at Bunker Hill and November third at Appalachian last October. They then went to State finals on March 21-22. In April state finals on individual events were held. During the year the team held bake sales and washed the Lions Club to help raise money.

Debate team displays its great success by its many trophies.

The Drama Club, although a new club this year, played an important role in the school year. After combining their talents, members of the club demonstrated their fine abilities through two productions. The Drama Club also helped provide entertainment for the Mr. St. Stephens pageant and presented various programs throughout the year.

Dressed in full attire for their first production, the club members show their wittiness.

These young journalists spend much of their time collecting information on current school events, and then compiling this information into the likeness of a newspaper. Factual news articles, amusing anecdotes, and Sherwood Forest are all important items featured in the Torch.

After typing, proof-reading, and preparing layouts for the newspaper, it is finally ready to be sent to the publisher. This year, contrary to years past, a new Torch was sold at St. Stephens an average of once every four weeks instead of once every six weeks as before. This helps keep the students up-to-date with the activities that go on at St. Stephens.

One should remember the time and effort these students put into the production of our school newspaper.

C. Killian looks over her article in The Torch.

M. Garren takes many pictures for The Torch. Wonder what he's taking one of now?

V. Craig and L. Herndon stay many afternoons at school just admiring The Torch in Vanessa's locker.

L. Warren wondering what to write for the next issue of The Torch.

Who are those familiar faces who roam each homeroom carrying a stack of news? It's only the Torch Business Staff doing their job. Dedicated students, who are interested in bettering the lines of communication around St. Stephens High, devote their time to sell the Torch. These energetic members create the great Torch Business Staff for the year 74-75 of our school.

Rick Owens is Business Manager of the Torch. He spends so much of his time trying to boost sales he was put out in the halls for doing it in class.

Corona Business Meets Goal of $11,000

SEATED: R. Church, G. Hoyle, T. Pope, S. Dietz, Manager; C. Spencer, D. J. McGhinnis, A. Hefner, J. Yount. FIRST ROW: D. Watson, K. Penley, S. Lafone, J. Kirby, P. Eckard, T. Johnson. SECOND ROW: Mrs. Haines, adviser; P. Sigmon, C. Huffman, N. Wooldridge, J. Johnson, V. Gower.

Securing funds to finance the school yearbook is the main purpose of the Corona Business Staff. These students spend much of their time selling advertisements to local merchants and employers to help raise the required funds. Money raised through Corona sales serves as the other means of finance for the yearbook. A considerable sum of money is required in the production of the Cornona, and without the efforts put forth by the Corona Business Staff, a memorable yearbook could not be published for the enjoyment of students and teachers alike.

Another Successful Year For The Corona Editorial Staff

If not for the literary talents of these young writers, the production of a memorable school yearbook would not be possible. The Corona editorial staff worked continually throughout the school year planning and organizing a yearbook which would provide students with a lasting memory of life at St. Stephens High School in the year 1975.

Taking pictures, editing and proofreading copy, drawing layouts — all of these are important duties that the Corona editorial staff must undertake to produce the yearbook. When reading this Corona, it is hoped that students will appreciate the time and effort put forth by these dedicated staff members.

R. Deal and M. Propst discuss the progress which they have made.

J. Yount, editor-in-chief, prepares material to be submitted to Delmar.

S. Dietz not only is Business Mgr. but also does editorial work.

R. Lane works on Corona material during her spare time. (Biology).

K. Reynolds does art work for Corona.

STUDENT BODY

SENIORS

With mixed emotions, St. Stephens High School seniors face the best of all their high school years. They look back fondly on all the good times: going to lunch five minutes ahead of the underclassmen, and sitting on the senior balcony; winning the Spirit Jug and being # 1 at pep rallies; supporting their "Fighting Indians" in athletic competition; the fun and excitement of Student Body elections; Sadie Hawkin's Day; and participating in magazine sales for the last time. Toward the end of the year, Seniors anticipate the new experiences of ordering caps, gowns, and invitations; not having to take mid-terms and finals; and being the guests at the Junior-Senior Prom. Finally, after graduation "tears and good-byes," the seniors of St. Stephens High School look forward to their much anticipated trip to the beach. Upon returning, they proudly begin college educations or enter new careers in the fields of their choice. They strive to reach high goals using the knowledge gained through their determination, hard work, and cooperation with their devoted faculty and advisors of St. Stephens High School.

JUNIORS

Ray Bowman — Junior Class President.

Dana Norris — Junior Class Secretary.

Completing their third year at St. Stephens, the Juniors are very well adjusted to high school life. Some of the newly acquired privileges include being allowed to join more clubs, play varsity sports, and of course, hosting the Jr. Sr. Prom. As this school year comes to a close, Juniors begin thinking excitedly about their futures, as they realize that next year they will be Seniors!

SOPHOMORES

Returning no longer as newcomers, the sophomore class now considers themselves "upperclassmen," (At least in comparison to freshmen). The sophomores returned to find themselves faced with new teachers, brand new classrooms; and something extra-special, a foreign language! A new curriculum was presented to them and they had to learn the school all over again. During the year, the sophomores accomplished many things: winning the magazine sales, getting drivers licenses, and as one teacher put it — "they grew up."

FRESHMEN

Roger Jones — Freshman Class President

Bewildered looks characterize much of the freshman class during the first few days of high school. These looks generally subside as the year progresses. However the freshman year is not without its inevitable trials and tribulations. Among the problems encountered by freshmen are: learning how to behave at pep rallies, stacked lockers, difficult courses, and constant harrassment by upperclassmen. But, they can take consolation in the fact that soon they will be sophomores and their turn will come to pick on next year's "bewildered group."

STUDENT LIFE

This year, the Corona staff would like to introduce a new section, entitled "Student Life." This section will be different in two ways. First, it will consist of various photographs depicting comings and goings of SSHS students. Second, this section will be without captions, giving the reader the opportunity to use his imagination as to determine the occasion. We hope that you enjoy "Student Life."

Congratulations Class of '75

CONGRATULATIONS
SENIORS

CLASS
'75

Along with the arrival of the 1975 Corona comes the end of another school year at good ole SSHS. For the Freshmen it is just the beginning. For the Sophomores it is a half-way mark. For the Juniors times will soon be over. But for the Seniors it is the end and the beginning. The memories of high school days will linger for ever in the minds of the graduating Seniors.

Joyce Yount, the editor-in-chief of the Corona, has displayed to the best of her ability the 1974-1975 school days. I would like to thank Joyce for the help and understanding she has given me in my attempt to provide the financial backing of the Corona.

Without money the publication of a yearbook would be impossible. I would like to thank all of the companies and all the people who gave our much needed financial aid. I would like the students to make a special effort to recognize and appreciate this help. Without it the memories could not be followed through by the visual Corona.

My special thanks goes to our Business advisor, Mrs. Haines, and our Yearbook advisor, Mrs. K. Terry. When it comes down to really doing something and getting it done I need a "push" now and then. Between the two, they "pushed" enough to keep me rolling. I would also like to take this opportunity to express the friendship, that I feel is very important, that I feel for Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Terry. Our ability to "get along" has made my editorship more fulfilling.

I'm surely not forgetting my great staff. They pushed and they shoved and they worked and they sold until we could finance a yearbook. This was the greatest bunch of people I have ever, in my life, worked with. To you, staff, I wish you all the luck next year, and thanks for everything. You don't know how proud I am of you all.

Now, I'm going to sneak in a "thanks" to the faculty. Money strewn all over the office and interrupted classes and staff members in homerooms are over for '75. Thank you for your understanding and patience, faculty.

I saved this part of my thoughts to the very last, because this part is the most important to me. To every student I thank you for your support. Without you, our efforts would be worthless. Every single person has contributed to the success of the Corona. The Corona is made by all of you. The Corona is yours. I wish you all the luck in the following years. Take care of yourselves. God bless you all!

In remembrance of the class of '75

Editor's Last Words

Joyce Yount, Editor-in-Chief

It is with mixed feelings that I write these closing remarks. Feelings of excitement and pride; but most of all, a feeling of appreciation. There are many things for which I am grateful, but mainly the support and encouragement by the people of St. Stephens to the Corona staffs this year.

Through our combined efforts, we have attempted to present to St. Stephens High School, a pictorial record of the school year 1974-1975.

There are, however, a few people to whom I would like to express my most sincere gratitude. For her constant service toward the completion of this Corona, I would like to say a hearty "Thank you," to Mrs. Karen S. Terry who at the beginning of the year undertook the job as adviser for both the yearbook and the newspaper. Also, I would like to again thank Mr. Bost for his tolerance of the Corona Staff this year. But . . . with no St. Stephens High School, there would be NO Corona . . .

Thank you St. Stephens!

The Editor
